General Notes:

- The site will follow the same aesthetic of Bojack Horseman (i.e. hues of blue and purple, strong pigment, etc.)
 - Patterns used in the site will be galactic/sunset-inspired
- With the show being animated, the site should incorporate the bold linework used in the series
- The different sections will be on the same page, but there should be a way for the user to easily navigate through them (which will most likely take the form of a tab on the side)
- For the font, a sans-serif would be best
